Višković announces lawsuits over false accusations – SRNA

September 25, 2020

Republika Srpska Prime Minister Radovan Višković has said that all accusations regarding his alleged participation in events in Srebrenica of July 1995, which have been published by certain Federation media recently, are false, and that he will bring lawsuits for defamation.

Višković has said that there will be several lawsuits against internet portals and individuals and that he will use legally stipulated forms to protect himself and his family, as well as the office of Republika Srpska prime minister.

"Clean conscience is that which keeps a man going in life. I and my family have clean conscience. It is even disgusting for me to comment on all these accusations and lies. This is why I did not comment in the past few days as I don't want to roll in the mud in which those who are attacking me are rolling," Višković told RTRS.
